THE AFRICAN LION RETURNS HOME

WRITTEN BY BRADLEY FORTUIN

Lions are top predators in their environment. They play a crucial role in keeping that balance and always remind you of their presence. Naledi B a.k.a the African Lion was born to dominate the entertainment industry.

Brad and SeanJ checked in with the Y Academy Graduate this week on KC Drive.

Naledi, which means 'star', says her passion for music radiates from the inside out and that stepping into the music realm is like stepping into your True Self.

She teamed up with the award-winning 'Cmomo' for her new single 'uThando', exploring the facet of being vulnerable towards a woman and giving your all to her.

Naledi recently visited Nigeria as she has a vision of uniting Africa through music.

We can surely expect great things from the African Lion as she 'ROARS' in euphonious melody.

NEW GENERATION ACAPPELLA GROUP

WRITTEN BY AVRIL ESTERHUIZEN

On Tuesday Aphelele Miselo a member of the New Generation Acapella Group from Mbekweni came to visit Avril Esterhuizen on KC Lunch to talk about their vision and mission.

The group consists of learners from different high schools in Mbekweni. They started as only a few and currently, they are 10 members.

They are friends who decided to start the group. They have performed in various places in the Cape Winelands.

They performed every weekend but because all of them are in their final year in school they decided to slow down.

Because of their initiative, a lot of young people started their own Acapella groups

THE BLIND DATE BY RAWSON'S PROPERTY

WRITTEN BY LOUISE PIETERSEN

On Saturday 26th February our KC 107.7 Blind Date Winners sponsored by Rawson's Property in partnership with Willy's and Gallico finally got to meet each other for the first time at Die Khoi Restaurant.

The 4 couples were wined and dined with a night under the stars hosted by KC's Louise Pietersen and Avril Esterhuizen, according to our hosts, sparks flew and eyes glittered as between the blind date winners.

Radio KC would once again like to thank Willy and Gallico as well as the Die Khoi for sponsoring the Blind-Date Night, it was truly a privilege to watch love bud in front of our eyes.

Remember to stay tuned to RadioKC 107.7 for updates from our blind date couples as they navigate through the trials and tribulations of love.

THE YOUNG HUSTLERS CORNER

WRITTEN BY BANDILE XHOSA

The KC@WORK show has been hosting a series of young people featured every Tuesday morning at 11:30am on a segment call “Hustlers corner”, the segment highlights small businesses who are in their starting phase and most of these business are businesses founded by youth ranging from 19-29 yes of age which is promising to the growth local economy and the mission to combat youth unemployment.

We’ve had youth thinking outside the box to make a living for themselves and at the same time creating job opportunities for their peers.

We’ve have creative entrepreneurship shown by these young-stars coming up with business such as takkie -wash, taking house chores turning them into money making streams like the Mbexican founder who was on air this past Tuesday on the show.

This segment’s purpose is to create a culture and bring hope to the hopeless that hey in the words of the late hitmaker Mandoza “Uxayitho’kanjani uhlelekoni” which loosely translate get up make and make it happen for yourself to the youth keep the hustle and let’s keep it going
