#KCYOUTHMONTH22

BE AN UPSTANDER, LIKE MARIUS

Marius Barends of Butterfly House (Community Centre in Groenheuwel) stepped forward and spoke out against the scourge of abuse and bullying in the community, as part of our 'Be an Upstander, not a Bystander' campaign on KC Drive this week.

Marius is currently pursuing studies at Hugenote Kollege to fulfill his goal to become a Social Worker.

He motivates young men and women to find their own voice, as he once did and stand up for themselves and those around them.

CYCLING FOR CHANGE

Bboy Vouks is breakdancing and cycling for change.

Gerald James, aka Vouks, spoke to Brad and SeanJ this week on KC Drive about his Foundation and his annual cycle tours he embark on to raise funds.

To brave the long hot journey from Johannesburg to Cape Town in just over eight days, is no child's play.

Last month in May, he cycled from Cape Town to Namibia in just 9 days!

His passion for people keeps him going.

Funds raised will go toward dancers entering the 2024 Paris Olympic Games.

The strong hearted Cyclist is determined to break the 'cycle' of poverty and believes that whatever you want is right in front of you; all you have to do is reach for it.

CANAN MOODIE EXCEEDS ALL EXPECTATIONS

"I think he is the real deal." Those were the words of Jake White when speaking about Paarl's Canan Moodie(19).

We have to talk about Paarl's Canan Moodie and what He has been able to achieve this season so far. Going toe to toe with elite international players and never looking out of place.

He started the season with a bang forming a deadly trio with Madosh Tambwe and Kurt-Lee Arendse, however Moodie has taken his form up to an insane level after moving to full-back when injury struck Kurt-Lee Arendse.

This Laaitie is out here making International players look dead average. Just ask Fassi and Mpimpi what happened to them last weekend.

If our boy from Amstelhof manages to stay on this trajectory he can certainly make his Springbok debut on the end of the year tour to Wales when He turns 20. Just like a fresh faced JP Pietersen in 2003.
