CHRISMAINE DAMPIES

The Perfect shot

Talented and hardworking Photographer Chrismaine Dampies joined Brad and SeanJ on the drive show this week as part of KC 107.7's 'Women's Month Heroes' celebration.

Chrismaine's love for Photography started 4 years ago, when the bug bit and she was instantly hooked on the lens. Chrismaine Photography is more than just a job, it's a passion and a calling and one she intends to perfect and master over the years. Getting people to smile in front of the camera is rewarding and when that happens, she knows her job here is done.

Chrismaine encourages her fellow young ladies to not limit themselves and to be more than what society makes them out to be.

She concludes, "If it doesn't scare you, it won't build you."

NCUMBISA SIMAYLE VISITS KC@WORK

SHAKE DUKA WITH NCUMISA SIMAYLE

Ncumisa Simayle was born in the Eastern Cape where she lived until she finished grade seven. She then moved to live with her father and stepmother in Paarl, Mbekweni and continue her academic career. Ncumisa matriculated at Desmond Mpilo Tutu Secondary.

Life in Paarl was not easy and sometimes she would not even have sanitary towels but this did not deter her to follow her dreams. Heeding advice and guidance from her mathematics and accounting teachers she pursued a career in accounting and is now a Chartered Accountant in SA.

"It was not an easy journey, because there were times when I wanted to give up, but I always reminded myself of where I wanted to be and I would press on," she said. Ncumisa sacrificed her social life at UWC and focused on her books. She adds, "Sakhe, I focused on what I could control, which was my education."

"Ncumisa now lives in an estate, drives a SUV and works for a leading insurance company in S.A.

When asked by Sakhe what being a woman in South Africa of today means, she said "It means we as women have an opportunity to take leadership roles, be in the frontlines and be the change."

PASTOR MERENCIA JOOSTE BREAKING STEREOTYPES #KCLUNCH

Pastor Jooste had a deep conversation with Avril about leadership

PASTOR. MERENCIA
JOOSTE IN STUDIO

Pastor Merencia Jooste , Church Leader of Siyyon Apostolic Prophetic House in Van Wykville was a guest on KC Lunch this week. She shared her challenges that she experience with Men Leadership. She is not acknowledged by the men because they believe that Men are the Leaders.

It is sad that in this day and age this form of stereo type still exists.

We as a collective need to continue to spread the message around gender equality and acknowledge the important role that women play in our communities, society and the global stage.

Pastor Jooste encouraged all women to set goals for themselves and never give up on your dreams. We at KC107.7 applaud all Women Heroes for their meaningful contributions to society.

BENNI MCCARTHY SECURES "DREAM JOB"

Manchester United's newest striking coach Benni McCarthy has broken his silence on his blockbuster move to Old Trafford.

MCCARTHY SIGNING JERSEYS AT OLD TRAFFORD

McCarthy has broken his silence on the sensational move.

"How can you not be good when you are standing in the Theatre of Dreams? I'm just excited and happy to be here, hopefully I am going to help these young players, push and change the mindsets and really try and make a difference to United this season," he told MUTV. "The mentality around the club is completely different. It just brought that something to lighten up what has been missing in the last few seasons and hopefully this season, we are going to see a completely revived United with a hungry bunch of players and a team that is going to be able to challenge to get into the [UEFA] Champions League and change the dynamics of the Citys and the Liverpools," he added.

McCarthy got a front row seat to witness United draw one-all to Rayo Vallecano on Sunday afternoon.
